

WHAT'S FACT AND WHAT'S FICTION?

Question: Did Duane really get a piece of turkey stuck in his throat

Answer: No, but Ronda did but it wasn't when she was little. It happened about eight years ago and that piece of turkey wouldn't go down and it wouldn't come up. How did she get it out? You'll have to have some patience and wait on the next book entitled "R.Friend (Time) Out At Home" to find the answer to that question.

Question: Did Ronda really have a Chatty Cathy doll?

Answer: Yes. Ronda takes her Chatty Cathy doll with her on school visits. Ronda pulled Chatty Cathy's string so many times when she was little that Chatty Cathy doesn't chat anymore.

Question: Did Momma Friend really play with bugs when she was a little girl?

Answer: Yes. She would sit around as though she was having tea and a picnic however not with dolls but with bugs – dead bugs, live bugs, and any bugs she could find. She loved bugs!!!

Question: Did Grandma Brombaugh always wear dresses?

Answer: Yes. Just like the book says – she tried a pair of pants on when she was ten but hated them and only wore dresses after that. She would ask Ronda " Is my slip showing? Is my slip showing?"

Question: Did the farm smell?

Answer: Yes, on a hot, humid day it would stink to high heaven! But no bandanas or clothespins were used. Farmers grow so accustomed to the smell that it just becomes part of their normal everyday life.
